The Grub-ſtreet Journal. NUMB. 368.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 13, 1736.

To the Authors of the Grub-ſtreet Journal.

Gentlemen,

AS you have all along been the Advocates of injured merit, I make no doubt you will give the incloſed a place in your Paper. It contains the real ſentiments of no inconſiderable number of diſintereſted Gentlemen, who ſee with concern an injuſtice publickly offered to one who meritorioufly claims the approbation and protection of the publick. If the character of any other Actor had been as injuriouſly treated, as that they here endeavour to vindicate by my means, they would with equal willingneſs appear in its defence. They are mere Volunteers in the cauſe of juſtice, intend no reflection, and are actuated by neither friendſhip nor prejudice.

I am, &c.

Jan. 4, 1736-7. A. B.

Nando's Coffee-houſe, Jan. 4, 1736-7.

To the Occaſional Prompter.

SIR,

YOUR firſt appearance in the conteſt between the rival Pollys, betrayed greater partiality than could have been expected from one of your gravity and knowledge; but as your Criticiſms on that occaſion were trite and ingenious, your acquaintance were willing to overlook an error which might have proceeded from a tendre for a particular Fair; a frailty to which human nature is liable. Tho' we could not agree with you in your preference of Mrs. C—E, for very many eſſential reaſons, unneceſſary to mention now the conteſt is at an end, we did not care to oppoſe a choice upon which your quiet ſeems ſo much to depend. But, my old bottle Companion, little did I think, after you had gained your favourite point, to ſee your pen partially employed in favour of any one Manager or Theatre in prejudice of another. I hoped your juſtice, your humanity, your knowledge of our Laws, would have deterred you from publickly vilifying the Character of one, whoſe bread depended upon the good opinion of his fellow ſubjects. I could not have imagined that Mr. F———'s condeſcenſion to your favourite Actreſs, his G——D, or his Champion, wou'd have induced you to deſcend to ſo much unjuſt ſcurrility as is contained in your Papers of the 25th and 27th of laſt month However colourable your Patron's falſe reſentment may have been, your publick approbation of his late uncharitable, ungentleman exhibition of Tiddidoll, was unchriſtian, inhuman. You ſhould have remembered, that one was a Manager only; the other, an Actor as well as Manager. Had you animadverted upon him as a Manager, and done it with juſtice, you would have deſerved, and had the applauſe of all your old acquaintance; but as you were injuriouſly ſilent on that part of his Character, which ſets him on the level with your Patron, and unjuſtly attack'd him on that other, in which he could not be ſuppoſed to have given his Drurian Majeſty any offence, they apprehend you muſt have been actuated by motives not altogether conſiſtent with ſtrict honour.

But, my good friend, what argument have you, or your military Correſpondent Halfe-pike, brought to prove Mr. G—D a ridiculous Performer? Inhuman expreſſion! why, that he has a bad voice, Heavens, to what monſtrous abſurdity do paſſion and malice drive men, that don't make truth and juſtice the meaſure of their conduct! Are then, natural defects to be imputed to men as faults? but conſcious of the ridiculouſneſs of this charge, you magiſterially pronounce his action unnatural. Indeed, old acquaintance, your friends about the Bar, that had ſo often been juſtly charmed with Mr. G———D's action, can by no means concur with you in this aſſertion. You may remember how often it had been unanimouſly agreed to at our Club, that no Actor now living came up ſo near to the inimitable WILKS as Mr. G———D. And yet that excellent Performer might have been ridiculed, by a ſtripling Mimick, if any Manager, in his days, had had the ill-nature to inſtruct a Tiddidoll to expoſe his foibles Without any diſparagement to any man, we think he is not excelled in the different and difficult Characters of Hamlet, Valentine, Archer, Wildair, Anthony, Eſſex, Juba, and many others, in which his great Predeceſſor had juſtly ſhined It is admitted that his voice is none of the beſt, any more than that of a certain Actreſs yet living, whoſe juſtneſs of action had long rendered her the delight of the town. And, like her, I doubt not but Mr. G———D will be the delight of all unprejudiced judges, notwithſtanding any natural defect of voice.

If we view this injured Gentleman in his private Character, we ſhall find him unblemiſhed. We ſhall find him induſtrious, fair and punctual in his dealings, friendly and charitable to the utmoſt of his ability. We ſhall find him a tender husband, and an Oeconomiſt. You beſt know, if common Fame has been more or leſs liberal in her encomiums of another. If this honeſt, good natured, induſtrious, uſeful man, be allowed by the unbiaſſed publick, to anſwer the picture I have drawn of him, What can you ſay in juſtification of your attempt to deſtroy him with that publick, from which he painfully and humbly endeavours to draw ſubſiſtence for his family? Unheard of cruelty! had this ill-treated, well-meaning man been bleſſed with a fortune equal to your Patron's, I am ſatisfied we ſhould have ſeen him employ it, at leaſt as well as he that enjoys it. And from what we already know of him, we may be ſure he would ſcorn to have endeavoured to increaſe it, either at the expence of another, or of his own honour. I dare anſwer for him, he does not envy your Patron his ſuperiority over him in point of fortune; and without being more humble than he need be, I don't think he ought to allow him any other: and tho' he ſhould, they who are beſt acquainted with his family and perſonal merit, would hardly be perſuaded to concur with him.

You tell us, Mr. F——— 'ventured ſome thouſands of 'pounds to put the Theatre in a flouriſhing condition.' If he had riſked his money in compliment to the publick, he would have deſerved publick thanks; but as I myſelf have often ſeen him venture thouſands, on chances in which the publick could not be either immediately or relatively concern'd, I cannot gain upon myſelf to think he had the publick much at heart, when he bought himſelf into a Management nature never deſigned him for: but as he is got in, I ſincerely wiſh he may find a perſon, well qualified, to help him off with his bargain. When I hear that he encourages and treats the learned who apply to him better than he has done hitherto, I ſhall agree with you, that he intended 'to put the Theatre in a more flouriſhing con-' dition than it had been in the days of his predeceſſors.' This I am ſure of, that were Mr. G———D in his place, that Theatre would flouriſh in the full extent of the word. An honeſt, judicious Actor; or an honeſt, judicious ſet of Actors, are certainly better intitled to the Management of a Theatre, than Gentlemen that have not had opportunities of knowing the mechaniſm of a Stage.

I ſolemnly declare I have no perſonal quarrel to Mr F———, nor other regard to Mr. G———D, than that which his merit exacts from every honeſt man. You know, old Acquaintance, I have none to you, but that which your own unguarded injuſtice to injured merit has drawn upon you. When I ſee you make publick reparation for the injuſtice you had publickly committed, I ſhall be, along with the reſt of your old Acquaintance within the Bar,

Your ſincere friend, and moſt humble ſervant,

AMICUS.

ODE for the New New Year, compoſed by COLLEY CIBBER, Eſq;

AIR.

GRATEFUL Britons, grace the day,
Give to God-like GEORGE his due:
Thus alone ſhall ſwell the lay;
GEORGE is bleſt in bleſſing you.
May years to years the ſound repeat,
And ſing the mutual bliſs complete.

Chorus of the laſt two lines.

RECITATIVO.

While greatneſs knows no vain deſire,
He only asks what you require:
And while his crown your freedom ſhields,
Your freedom power to guard it yields.

AIR.

What glory charms
Like ſuch a ſway!
Protection warms,
And we obey.
From hand to hand
The joy is toſs'd,
While dread command
In love is loſt.

RECITATIVO.

Lords of yourſelves, you form the Law
That gives the diſcontented awe:
'Twixt Prince and People no debate,
But zeal to make each other great.

AIR.

Thus poſſeſſing
Ev'ry bleſſing,
Cou'd enjoyment pall deſire;
New obedience,
True allegiance,
Gracious GEORGE would ſtill inſpire.
So the fountain,
From the mountain,
Laves the verdant vale below;
While improving,
And removing,
Circling harveſts fall and grow.

CHORUS.

Raiſe then to Cæſar, raiſe the Song;
Let vocal withes loudly ſing,
That great and glorious, great and long,
Long, long, and happy, live the KING.

Since our Brother the LAUREAT's Odes have been ſo often particularly illuſtrated in this Paper, and ſince for the moſt part they are annual repetitions of the like ſounds and ſenſe; we ſhall now only ſubjoin a few ſhort Notes to this.

VER. 1. Grateful Britons, grace the day.] By ſinging it, as exhorted in the Birth-day Odes 1731, 1732. or ſinging to it, as in the New years Odes 1733, 1736. So that the meaning is the very ſame with that noble verſe in Birth-day Ode 1731. With ſong, ye Britons, lead the day; or that equally noble one in the New year Ode 1732. Awake with joyous ſongs the day.

VER. 3. This alone ſhall ſwell the lay.] This due of god-like GEORGE ſhall of itſelf alone, unmixed with any other praiſe, ſwell the Lay. There is a peculiar beauty in the word ſwell, ſuppoſing this Ode to be performed, as it really was, with inſtruments of wind-muſic, as Trumpets, Haut-boys, &c. tho' to give the moſt ſenſible idea of the propriety of the term, there ſhould have been a Bag-pipe or two among them.

VER. 5. May years to years the ſound repeat.] Some imagined it ſhould be read from, and the ſenſe May years after years repeat, &c. But the Poet certainly meant, May this Year repeat the ſound of this Ode to the next, and ſo on ad infinitum.

VER. 7. While greatneſs knows, &c.] This and the following verſe ſeem to be an explanation of two obſcurer lines in the New-year's Ode 1732.

Your annual aid when he deſires,
Leſs the King than Land requires.

VER. 15. From hand to hand
The joy is toſs'd.] Some read here land to land, meaning Britain, Ireland, and our Plantations and Dominions abroad. Others from hand to hand, viz. of our ſtanding army, which is diſpers'd in ſo many different places; or the words may be applied to different bands of muſic. But if this be the meaning, the original reading need not be changed, as repreſenting the hands of the Performers; tho' indeed, in this latter ſenſe, if the rime would permit, it ſhould rather be read from hand to mouth, which would comprehend all the Muſic, both vocal and inſtrumental, of all the good people of Great Britain.

VER. 21. 'Twixt Prince and People no debate,
But zeal to make each other great.

This is a beautiful variation of two lines in the New-Years Ode 1733,

But now with our Monarch the ſtrife is,
Who beſt ſhall protect or obey.

VER. 34. Circling Harveſts fall and grow.

While the Harveſt of one year falls by the reapers hands, and that of the next ſtill grows ripe. Circling is either put by a Figure, frequently uſed by the LAUREAT, for alternate; or may be thus explained: Harveſts is here figuratively uſed for corn; and as the corn of one Harveſt is ſown in order to the next, it may properly be ſay'd to fall and grow in a conſtant circulation.

WE think our Correſpondent HABERDASHERUS has treated The Occaſional Prompter in a gentler manner, than he deſerved: This great pretender to candour and impartiality had charged him, and conſequently us, with malice and ill-nature, for this wiſe reaſon, becauſe his Letter 'was publiſhed the day before Mrs 'CLIVE's appearing in the character of Polly.' As Mr. HABERDASHERUS has fully cleared himſelf in our laſt Journal; ſo part of his plea will fully clear us: for when we ſent his Copy to the Preſs, we did uot know when the Beggar's Opera was to be acted. When The Double Deceit was damned in February laſt, the damnation of it was attributed by the Author to the malicious inſertion of a Letter againſt it in our Journal the very day on which it was to be acted: and we were then charged with ill-nature and malice, by the Occaſional Prompter's predeceſſor, in the ſame manner, and on the ſame account, tho' with as little reaſon, as now; being intirely ignorant of the exact time when his Play was to come on.

But ſince our Brother has made ſo free with one of our Correſpondents, and with ourſelves; we think we ought in return to give him this good advice, Not wantonly to depart from the character he has aſſumed, by ſpeaking unintelligibly of his own head, and without book; which is ſomewhat worſe than impertinence in a Prompter. The following oddities in his Anſwer to HABERDASHERUS in the Daily Journal, Dec. 31. gave occaſion to this advice. 'For which reaſon I hope the Gentleman who ſigns himſelf Neuter will excuſe my poſtponing him till Monday, 'in order to give myſelf intirely to a Lady, whoſe Cauſe 'I have publickly eſpouſed, during the whole Diſpute, 'as I thought, and ſtill think her very ill treated; and 'THAT I ever ſhall be an Advocate for the oppreſſed, and 'a Scourge, as much as I can, to the Overbearing.'——'The Drug retaled in yeſterday's Grub is a ſpecifick Powder, which is, by theſe Protean-Empiricks, thrown in 'the Eyes of the Audience, as they have Points to carry, 'by which they hope to faſcinate them, AS to make them 'ſee juſt as they would direct THEIR Rays.'——'And 'if any diſturbance ſhould happen, it muſt be owing to 'ſome foreign Cauſe to her capacity as an Actreſs.'——'By which pridial publication, &c.' From pridianus and poſtridianus, are derived pridian and poſtridian: but from whence comes pridial?

Since our laſt, we have received a Letter from PUFFERUS, and another from P. M. The Eſſay upon Shackling is either above or below the comprehenſion of our Society.

Died in Edinburgh, and buried in the Gray-fryars church-yard the laſt year, 1736.

FOREIGN NEWS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 6. — Paris, Dec. 31. M. Voltaire's Poetical Piece, entitled The Maid, appears under-hand; and as he introduces St. Dominick, St. Francis, and St. Ignatius, talking very jocoſely and merry together in Hell, the Court has order'd him to be ſeized wherever he is found in the Dominions, and to ſhut him up in a Houſe of correction; but we hear he is retir'd into Holland, and not to Berlin or Aix la Chapelle, as was given out DP.

FRIDAY, Jan. 7. We hear, that his Royal Highneſs Don Emanuel, the King of Portugal's brother, is ſtill at Bayonne in France, and frequents often the Court of the Queen Dowager of Spain. DJ.

SATURDAY, Jan. 8. Letters from Hanover of Dec. 31. ſay, that the late Storms have put the Dutchy of Bremen, by the deſtruction they have made there, out of all manner of condition to pay any thing to the King theſe five years to come; and that as the dykes had given way on all ſides, they apprehended an univerſal deluge. DP.

MONDAY, Jan. 10. Madrid, Dec. 25. 'We are 'ſending to Catalonia cloth of the Manufacture of this 'kingdom for new cloathing the troops that ſerved in 'Italy.' DP. DJ. —— Here we cannot in duty to our Country, help obſerving that the Spaniards can make much more of ſending their wool abroad than applying it to the clothing of their troops; for which, without the mixture of our wool, it is abſolutely unfit; ſo that theſe woolen cloths manufactur'd in Spain are made of Britiſh and Iriſh wool. DP.

The laſt letters from Florence ſay, that Lord Theodore was ſtill in that ſtate, where he kept himſelf conceal'd, on account of orders being given by the Grand Duke to ſeize him; however they have learn'd from a perſon, with whom he had lodg'd ſome days, that the Baron had a great deal of ſilver, and great hopes; that he had diſpatch'd two men with letters, one to Calabria, and one to Bologna. LP.

TUESDAY, Jan. 11. They write from Rome, that ſeveral Engliſh Gentlemen, and among them a certain Lord, paid a viſit lately to the Pretender and his Sons in the church of St. Marcel, and had afterwards a long conference with his Miniſters. G. DA.

East India Houſe, Dec. 31, 1736.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies, do hereby give Notice to the Proprietors of ſuch Three and a Half per Cent. Bonds as have elapſed the limited Time for marking them, to be exchanged for Three per Cent. Bonds, That purſuant to a Reſolution of the General Court of the ſaid Company, upon the ſaid Bonds being brought to their Accomptant on or before Lady-day next, they ſhall be marked, in order to be exchanged for new Three per Cent. Bonds; and all ſuch Bonds as are not then marked, or exchanged, will then be paid off by the ſaid Company.

The ſaid Court further give Notice, That the Intereſt on the Three per Cent. Bonds iſſued Anno 1732, will be paid up to the 31*ſt of March next, on the Proprietors bringing the ſaid Bonds to be exchanged for other Bonds according to the new Form.*

This Day is publiſh'd,

(Price Two Shillings,)

With good Allowance to thoſe who take a Number,

The Third Edition, with the Addition of many new and uſeful Articles, exceeding more than double the Quantities inſerted in the former Editions by the Author,

A New FRENCH GRAMMAR, teaching a perſon of an ordinary Capacity, without the Help of a Maſter, to Read, Speak, and Write that Tongue in leſs than half the uſual Time, in an entire new and eaſy Method never before attempted.

By J. E. TANDON,

Teacher of the French Tongue at her Grace the Dutcheſs of Marlborough's.

The Whole Reviſed and Corrected by R. Dugud, Student of the Univerſities of Paris and Ratisbon.

N. B. In order to give the Publick an Idea of the uſefulneſs of this Grammar, not only to thoſe who are willing to learn the French Tongue, but alſo to any Perſon who formerly learnt it, and ſince may have partly forgot it. The following Lines are inſerted as a Specimen of the Whole.

1. The French as written and ſpelt.	2. The Engliſh.	3. The French as pronounced.
le Firmament.	the Firmament.	le Firmamang.
le Lever du Soleil.	the Sun-riſing.	le Levè du Soleil.
le Chant.	Singing.	le Shang.
les Maiſons.	the Houſes.	le Mèzong.

Printed for J. Millan, near Will's Coffee Houſe, Scotland-yard, and J. and J. Fox, at the Half Moon and Seven Stars in Weſtminſter Hall.

Feb. 1. will begin to be publiſh'd, according to the Propoſals, (by 8 Sheets in Folio for one Shilling, or 20 for half a Crown.)

An entire and faithful Tranſlation, illuſtrated with all the Cuts and Maps in the Original on 64 Copper Plates, and ſeveral neceſſary Improvements by the Tranſlator,

NUMB. I. of

A DESCRIPTION of CHINA and CHINESE TARTARY, with Korea and Tibet, containing the Geography, and Hiſtory, as well Natural as Civil, of thoſe Countries; lately publiſhed at Paris, after twenty Years labour, by Pere du Halde, in four Volumes Folio, at the price of ten Guineas, and now to be brought into two Volumes in Engliſh, at fifty Shillings to Subſcribers, (being reduced to that price from 3 l. in lieu of the Advantages promiſed to them.)

Printed by E. Cave at St. John's Gate, and ſent to Gentlemen, &c. according to Directions, or may be had at the Booksellers in Town and Country.

No Money to be paid till the Sheets are delivered, except a Guinea for the Fine Paper, of which no more will be printed than ſubſcribed for, and half a Guinea Advance-Money for ſuch as are willing to ſtay till the Firſt Volume is done; and the ſame for the Second.

N. B. Mr. Watts's Edition of this celebrated, noble, and curious Work, as himſelf calls it, in 4 Vols. 8vo. ſcarce contains half the Matters he pretends in his Advertiſements. For, beſides the entire Omiſſion of numerous Articles, and Caſtrations of the reſt, all the curious Surveys of thoſe Countries, (which coſt the Miſſionaries 9 Years Toil, and the Emperor of China immenſe Sums) are expunged, ſo as to render the Work in great Meaſure uſeleſs. In ſhort, out of 42 Maps, he has inſerted only 2, and but 3 Plans of Cities out of 38. Neither is the Tranſlation itſelf agreeable to the Original, being full of Barbariſms, and in many places quite unintelligible; all this appears, to a Demonſtration, from the Letters of a judicious Gentleman, who has compared this pretended Tranſlation of Du Halde's Work with the French. And will be ſeen more diſtinctly in the plan of it, to be given with our Firſt Number, wherein the Articles omitted by Mr. J. Watts will be marked with an Aſteriſk. [See the Letters in the Grubſtreet Journals of Dec. 9 and 23, and Jan. 6, alſo in the Daily Advertiſer of Dec. 18 and 23, and Jan. 6; which Letters will ſpeedily be reprinted, and given Gratis.]

This Day is publiſh'd,

IGNORAMI LAMENTATIO, ſuper Legis Communis Tranſlationem ex Latino in Anglicum, una cum Dedicatione ad Dulmannum, & Præfatione ad Curteſium Lectorem. Cui adjicitur Index expoſitorius lucupletiſſimus Voces Communis Legis Angliæ in hoc Opere uſitatas Exponens & Explanans.

By the Author of the ART of POLITICKS.

Printed for Lawton Gilliver and J. Clarke, at Homers's Head in Fleet-ſtreet; and at their Shop in Weſtminſter Hall.

In a few Days will be publiſh'd, in Duodecimo, with a curious Frontiſpiece

IGNORAMUS a Play, as it was acted before King James I and the ſeveral Prologues and Epilogues as ſpoke, when acted at Weſtminſter, &c.

This Day is publiſh'd,

Bow Church-yard, Nov. 3, 1736.

MR. THOMAS COBB, Printer and Engraver, who married the Widow of the late Mr. JOHN CLUER, at the Maiden-head, the lower End of Bow Church Yard, in Cheapſide, London, having aſſigned and ſold the ſaid Printing Houſe and Buſineſs to his Brother-in-law WILLIAM DICEY;

This publick Notice is given,

That WILLIAM DICEY, for himſelf, and his Son CLUER DICEY, being provided with complete Sets of new Types, and all other Materials, carries on, in the moſt expeditious Manner, all Buſineſs, both in the Letter and Rolling Preſs Way.

Alſo Shopkeepers, and others, may there have curiouſly Engraven (as well as printed) Sign-Plates, Bills of Parcels, or any other Buſineſs, either in Wood or Copper.

Note, The wholeſale and retale Warehouſe for diſpenſing Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, for the Encouragement and more beneficial uſe of which Sovereign Chymical Medicine, his Majeſty hath granted his Letters patent under the Great Seal of Great Britain, is continued and carried on in London, only by the ſaid WILLIAM DICEY and BENJAMIN OKELL, the Patentee, at the Printing Office in Bow Church Yard aforeſaid: Where all Merchants, for Tranſportation, Shopkeepers, and others, for Sale or charitable uſes, may be ſupplied, with good Allowance.

Note alſo, That ſuch Shopkeepers, &c. as cannot with Conveniency be ſerved from London, may have their Orders obeyed, by directing or ſending To WILLIAM DICEY, at his Warehouſe in Northampton: At both which places a Book of the Virtues and uſe of the ſaid DROPS may be had gratis.

ELECTUARIUM MIRABILE:

Or, The Admirable Electuary,

WHICH infallibly cures all Degrees and Symptoms of the Secret Diſeaſe, with more Eaſe, Speed, and Safety, than any Medicine yet publiſh'd. Any old Running tho' of ſeveral Years ſtanding, whether occaſion'd by an Overſtrain, Weakneſs of the Seminals, or the Relicts of a former Infection, it certainly cures in a ſhort Time, without a Minute's Confinement, Suſpicion, or the uſe of Aſtringents; being a Medicine ſo wonderfully pleaſant and eaſy in its Operation, that the niceſt palate, or weakeſt Conſtitution, may take it with Delight: Two Pots are generally ſufficient to compleat a Cure in moſt Caſes: To be had (with Directions at large) only of the Author, Dr. CAM, a Graduate Phyſician, who has publiſh'd it 30 Years, and is conſtantly to be adviſed with at his Houſe, at the Golden Ball, in Bow Church Yard, Cheapſide, at Half a Guinea the Pot.

N. B. Since nothing is more requiſite, in the Cure of any Diſtemper, than for a Patient to have free Acceſs to his Phyſician; therefore beware of buying Medicines at Toy-ſhops, Bookſellers Shops, &c. the Authors of which are always conceal'd, and not to be ſpoke with on any Occaſion: And tho' by their ſpecious Pretences you are promiſed a cheap Cure, you will certainly find it very dear in the End.

Verbum ſat Sapienti.

See his Books lately publiſh'd, viz. His rational and uſeful Account of the Secret Diſeaſe. Price 1 s.

His Practical Treatiſe; or, Second Thoughts on the Conſequence of the Venereal Diſeaſe. In four parts, viz. 1. On the Simple Gonorrhæa, Gleets, and other Weakneſſes, whether from Venereal Embraces, Self-pollution, improperly call'd Onaniſm, or natural Imbecility. 2. On the virulent Gonorrhæa or Clap. 3. On the Venereal Lues, or Grand Pox, &c. 4. On the Symptomatick Lues, 5th Edit. Price 2 s. 6 d.

His Eſſay on the Rheumatiſm and Gout, Price 6 d.

His Diſcourſe on Convulſions, Price 6 d.

And his Vindication on the practice of Salivating, Price 1 s.

All ſold by G. Straham in Cornhill, J. Wilford in S. Paul's Church Yard, and at the Author's Houſe beforemention'd.

Dr. NEWMAN's Famous Anti-Venereal Pill.

WHICH, to the Surprize of all that take it, cures all Degrees of the Venereal Diſeaſe; it ſpeedily removes pains in the Head, Arms, or Legs, takes away the Running, Cordee, Heat of Urine, Soreneſs, and Inflammation of the parts: or any old Gleets, tho' of many Years ſtanding. It perfectly cures without hindrance of Buſineſs, or Confinement one Hour; nay, if you have Nodes, tumified Teſticles, Pockey Warts, Buboes, Shankers, Phymoſes, Paraphymoſes, Ulcers in the Mouth, Noſe, Throat, or Palate: Or if you are broke out in Scabs, and Blotches, from Head to Foot, in a ſhort Time you will be well, two or three being ſufficient when the Diſtemper is gentle, or freſh contracted; but if it has been long on the patient, or in the Blood, a few more is required for a Cure; there is but one in a Doſe, no bigger than a ſmall Pea, having neither Taſte, or Smell, and are ſold at ſo eaſy a price, as only two Shillings each. They are likewiſe put up in Boxes of half a Guinea and a Guinea price, being ſufficient in the worſt of caſes. Where may be had, ready to be delivered to any Meſſenger, the only Medicine in the World for all Seminal Weakneſſes, from Falls, Blows, Wrenches, Strains, hard Labours, Miſcarriages, Fluor Albus in Women, the Remains of Mercury unskillfully prepar'd, foul ſettling in the urine, old Gleets, Relicts of the Venereal Diſeaſe; or Damage by Self-pollution, a Dripping of Matter, pain in the Back, or often Occaſion to make Water, Weakneſs of the Veſſels after any former Cure at 5 s. the Vial: It ought to be taken after every Cure, to ſtrengthen the Body after the phyſick. Note, Theſe Drops and Pills will be readily ſent by the poſt to any part of England, if you ſend your Money in a Letter by the Stage-coaches.

Likewiſe have Chimical Water that cures the Itch and all Itchy Breakings out.

I have an Electuary which cures Colds, Coughs, Shortneſs of Breath, Aſthma's, Conſumptions, reſtores loſt Appetites, purifies the Blood. It is an infallible Remedy for the Gravel, and Stone, at One Shilling, Half Crown, Crown, and Half a Guinea the Gallipot, with Directions. I have a Powder for the Gripes in young Children, it gives immediate Eaſe, cauſes Reſt, and gives Strength; you may give it in the Month, price Six pence.

Attendance is given every Day, by the Author, a graduate phyſician, at his Houſe at the Blue-Ball in Hand-court, almoſt over-againſt Great Turn Stile Holbourn.
